Ms. Eva Jimeno Sicilia
Head of SEMED Unit
European Training Foundation

Eva Jimeno Sicilia holds a Masters of Science in Business Administration. She joined the ETF in 1995 where she currently holds the position of Head of Unit for the Southern and Eastern Mediterranean region. She started her international career as project manager at the Copenhagen Business School international office in 1991. She then moved to Brussels to pursue her international career working for development co-operation with Central and Eastern Europe in the field of higher education, within the framework of the EU Tempus programme. She combined a thematic specialisation on business administration with country specialisation on the Czech and Slovak Republics. At the ETF she has enlarged her experience, moving into vocational education and training issues (VET) issues. As a VET specialist she has worked on apprenticeship schemes and other forms of on the job training. She has also been involved in several country analysis (Jordan, Lebanon, Palestine, Syria) on VET and its links to the labour market and on a number of thematic reports on skills development for micro-enterprises and labour market issues. She has consolidated her experience on project design and management both of small scale pilot projects and large EU funded projects. Since 2005 she leads the ETF team responsible for operations in the Mediterranean.
