

Th Hashemite Kingdom of

Jordan

Presidency of the Government

Income & Sales Tax Department

National Registry Unit

National Identification Number

- The National Identification Number of a Jordanian person is linked to the family record booklet (husband and children)
- The National Identification Number is unique to the person holding it (no repetition)
- The National Identification Number is used in all government departments and institutions

Common database:

It is based on the National Identity Number and has the following information:

- The civil status.
- Civil Service Bureau
- Income and Sales Tax Department
- Company file
- Social security
- Health insurance
- Retirement
- National aid
- The Ministry of Education
- Higher education
- Vehicle and Drivers License Registration
- Department of Land and Survey
- Greater Amman Municipality

Exchange of information

Sources of information Beneficiaries	National aid	Fossil fuel subsidies	Health insurance	Presidency of the Government	Royal Diwan	.....
The civil status
Civil Service Bureau
Income & Sales Tax
Company file
Social security
Social insurance
Retirement
National aid
Ministry of Education.
Higher education

Mechanism for linking and updating information through:

- Electronic connectivity: exchange of information.(CD)
- electronic connectivity (online) .

Updating mechanism:

- monthly
- annually
- Biannually

Advantages of establishing the unit:

- Accuracy of information
- Fast exchange of information
- Identify the beneficiaries from household aid for lack of income resources (pockets of poverty)

- Identify the beneficiaries in need of health insurance (comprehensive health insurance)
  - Identify the parties which do not pay the taxes owed
- Have access to any reports and studies to used within the framework of any comprehensive national programs

Q & A